

ZONING OF CITY IS INITIAL STEP

Planning Commission Will Attempt to Secure Necessary Ordinance

At a called meeting of the city planning commission Thursday afternoon the standing committees named by C. H. Terwilliger, chairman of the commission were approved by the members of the commission and first plans for the work of the newly created body were discussed.

Next in legislation that will come before the commission is to go ahead with plans relative to zoning of the city and bringing in of new additions to the first task at hand, according to the opinion of the members expressed yesterday afternoon. The committee was asked to present a map of the people of Tulsa with the purposes for which it was created, the ends toward which it is working and the work that it has in view to accomplish those ends. Terwilliger named a committee at yesterday's meeting to go over the proposed McCain addition plans and to recommend action on them, for approval or disapproval by the city commission.

The following permanent committees were approved by the commissioners:

Publicity: E. Fred Johnson, chairman; Legislation: C. H. Terwilliger, chairman; C. J. Wrightsman, Charles H. Peters, E. Fred Johnson, W. T. Brady; Streets and boulevards: W. Frank Walker, chairman; Mayors: C. B. Lynch, Frank H. Reed, J. M. Crutchfield, Parks and recreation: Frank H. Reed, chairman; Leslie Doyle, G. T. Cathey, T. Charles Schultz, chairman; C. J. Wrightsman, C. B. Lynch, Zoning: Charles B. Peters, chairman; W. Frank Walker, John H. Shannon, Fred Johnson, Harold终端和和声: Carl Mayo, chairman; W. T. COMMENCE WORK ON 11 RESIDENCES

Walker and Adams to Construct 52 Homes in the Weaver Addition

Announcement was made Thursday by W. Frank Walker and Ross Adams who recently purchased 52 lots in the Weaver addition in the southeast part of the city that construction has been commenced on the first group of 11 houses, all six room bungalows, some of the $7,500 type built to sell from $7,500 to $10,000.

In about sixty days another group will be started and the building operations continued until all hands employed have been placed on all these lots. The first group is being built in the vicinity of Seventeenth and Victor, the highest point in the addition.

Sewer contracts covering the entire addition will be awarded by the city commission this week and this work should be completed within three months. Petitions for all streets in the addition have been favorably acted upon by the city officials and contracts will be let early next month. It is expected that the paving will be completed not later than February 1.

REV. CRUM RETURNS

General Convention of Episcopal Church Was the Largest Attended in History of the Church.

The forty-seventh general convention of the Episcopal church of the United States, which closed last Saturday in New York, was the largest attended in the church history. Rev. Rolfe P. Crum, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, writes. Delegates, 2,900 in number, were present from all over the world and included 111 bishops, 550 clerical and lay deputies and as many auxiliary deacons and women's auxiliaries.

Reverend Crum counted among the most important accomplishments of the convention the revision of the prayer book and a step towards church unity in the concordat with the Congregationalists and the federation with the Greek and the Armenian churches. Various special appeals for the relief of the sick and private diseases. For men—Discharge from military service, reparation, reorientation, unnatural discharge, kidney, bladder and all chronic diseases, 50% grants and vaccines treatments.
